Spray pads reopening in Fort Erie

FORT ERIE (June 18, 2020) On Friday, June 19, the Town of Fort Erie will be opening the spray pads at Bertie Centennial Park (Ferndale Park), Crystal Ridge Park and Stevensville Memorial Park.

The multi-use water feature located at the Ridgeway Village Square will remain temporarily closed at this time due to technical issues but should be available soon.

Spray pads are not be monitored by Town Staff. Families who visit Fort Erie spray pads are being asked to follow all recommended health and safety guidelines such as physical distancing from others (2 meters / 6 feet) and staying home if they are feeling ill.
